Reverse Raffle on March 13th

Where can a chamber member go and

1. Wear green
2. Hope your lucky number isn't called
3. Socialize and network
4. Lose, but possibly win prizes anyways

The unique event of the year is always the annual St. Patty's Day Reverse Raffle and this year it will be held on Thursday, March 13th. Is 13 your lucky number? We will see which of the 200 numbers may win the Grand Prize of $5,000, as our honorable Big-10 referee and local minister, Craig Ochoa and Darrel Malcom respectively (and respectfully) oversee this event.

What is a Reverse Raffle? It is, of course, the opposite of a raffle, where a number is chosen and the winner is overjoyed. The reverse or flip-side of this is what will instead take place; a ball is picked and the ticket holder LOSES. As does the next one, and the next, and so on. Those in attendance hope their number is not chosen, thus making them the Grand Prize Winner.

There is even more to the evening. Is the first one picked a loser? Yes, but at this "Night of 101 Prizes" the first and third and fifth (etc.) losers have a chance to go to the tables of 100 prizes and choose one they like. Thus, the term loser is relative, and plentiful at this evening event.

Those who have purchased a raffle ticket and are in attendance will be eligible to be in another drawing that night for a brand-new 50" plasma HD-TV and a Nintendo Wii system. Take it home that night!

The event will commence at 5:30pm with food from 6:00 to 8:00pm and the actual drawing will begin at 6:30.

If a chamber director hasn't cornered, er, offered to sell you a ticket yet, feel free to contact the chamber office. Only 200 tickets are sold and the price is $100 for a raffle ticket. Admission is $10 until 8:00. Make your reservations by calling (630) 665-3325. Wear green! Maybe the luck of the Irish will be yours!

Attitude + Behavior + Technique = Success!

When it comes to being successful, three things are critical; Attitude, Behavior and Technique. Our March 12th luncheon speaker, Merit Gest of Total Selling Solutions will help us discover which is the driving force at this event.

Held at the Holiday Inn on the 12th, members should RSVP on or before March 7th. As always, there will be a half-hour networking time before we get started -- time to swap business cards and visit the mini-exhibitors. If you would like to have a mini-exhibitor table for this or one of the upcoming luncheons, contact the chamber office at (630) 665-3325. Each member can have one table per year at no charge. Cost for the luncheon is $20 for members; visitors should pre-pay $25. Make an appointment and lunch with us!

Dear Chamber Members,

The weather is desperately trying to show us that Spring is inevitable, though we are skeptical after snow totals this year surpassed our expectations. The chamber is, in any case, planning a schedule blooming with opportunity for all.

Networking, exhibiting, becoming informed and, yes, even some socializing is on our calendar for the next three months. Upcoming luncheons will help you discover how to be more successful in March, celebrate in April with the 10-year Members, and be invigorated by the Mayor at the State of the Village in May. Our Business After Hours for Spring will take us to seasonally enticing venues such as Glendale Lakes Golf Club, Eaglewood Resort & Spa, and Barn Owl Garden Center. These are premium places at which to network and get to know your fellow chamber members, as well as enjoy the beautiful scenery.

If you've never attended a St. Patty's Day Reverse Raffle, plan on blocking out your calendar for this social event -- it's like none other. A fundraiser for the chamber, it's also a 'fun-raiser' for those who attend...winners and losers alike!

This year, the Five Star Business Expo will move to the Holiday Inn. Try to take even a little time out of your busy schedule and stop by this event. One hundred exhibitors, including food sponsors, will turn the hotel into a bustling business arena, brimming with business professionals you won't want to miss.

The Women In Business luncheons will be entertaining and valuable as attendees move from table to table at both the March and May gatherings, the latter a multi-chamber event.

We proudly introduce you to your new chamber logo, on this newsletter masthead and on the PROUD MEMBER static clings you have received or will receive in this envelope. After fifteen years of incorporation, the Carol Stream Chamber of Commerce has a bit of a new look, moving forward to helping businesses in many ways. We value our members -- thank you for your membership, Carol Stream Chamber! Remember to SHOP THE CHAMBER and help your fellow members build their businesses. We look forward to a Spring, full of budding business relationships and renewed energy. Enjoy!

12th Annual Five Star Business Expo - March 26th

Volume 14, Issue 1

Each year, five local chambers work together to produce a professional and exciting Business-to-Business Expo and this year brings some changes.

The 12th Annual "Five Star Business Expo" will move to a new venue at the Holiday Inn Hotel & Suites in Carol Stream. Exhibitors will be members of the five participating chambers from Addison, Bartlett, Bloomingdale, Carol Stream and Glendale Heights. There will be 101 businesses displaying booths in six rooms at the Holiday Inn: the Stratford Ballroom, Majestic Tent, Charleston Room, Fox Valley Room, Atrium and Marquee Room.

Located in each room will also be food exhibitors, providing a sampling of their specialties for attendees to taste. Always popular with the attendees and the exhibitors, there will be ten local restaurants treating us all to their delicious treats.

Super Sponsors this year are Sunrise Chevrolet, WaMu and Allied Waste, who were highlighted at the Networking Extravaganza After Hours in February at Bloomingdale Golf Club. Nearly 100 professionals networked and exchanged business cards and picked up their exhibitor packets.

Sixty-five members of the Carol Stream Chamber will be participating this year, some of which have been a part of the Five Star since it's inception. Allegra Print & Imaging's Cindy Blaski is the Five Star Committee Chair. She and her husband Gary, enjoy meeting with visitors and personally taking time to talk to each and hand them some giveaways. "I look forward to this event each year. It is definitely a valuable expo for our company!"

Jacki Unger from Sign*A*Rama, also a committee member, creates an inviting area with her professional trade show booth. "We are a full service sign company in business for 16 years. This Expo is one I would never miss!"

The Expo will open at 9:00am on March 26th and attendees will be able to learn about fellow chamber businesses as well as companies from the other chambers until 3:00pm. An extra hour is added to this year's event to benefit those who have prepared their booths and materials so diligently. After exhibitors dismantle their booths, they are ready to join other members at the After Hours from 3:30-5:30 in the ballroom. This is the time they can kick off their shoes and relax as they share stories of the day with others. In addition, participating exhibitors who have completed a short survey have a chance to take home some door prizes, donated by chamber businesses.

Whether you are in the Expo or not, you are welcome to tell your fellow associates, business neighbors and customers to visit the Five Star. People will come and go all day, some at lunchtime to sample the food, and others as their schedules allow. Parking will be available at the Holiday Inn and Brunswick Zone.

*"I look forward to this event each
year."*

FIVE CHAMBERS ♦ FREE ADMISSION WITH A BUSINESS CARD ♦ FREE FOOD SAMPLES

RSVP Policy There is a new Luncheon Policy beginning January 2008 which requires attendees to pre-register for all chamber luncheons, regular monthly luncheons as well as Women In Business luncheons. When you pre-register, we are better able to plan with the restaurants we are dealing with for the right amount of meals. Pre-registration (RSVP) must be done 3 business days prior (Friday noon for a Wednesday luncheon) and walk-ins will not be able to be accommodated. Cost for member lunch will be $20 and non-members are $25 pre-paid. Cancellation and no-shows will be charged $20. We do appreciate your consideration and cooperation on this new policy. Please call Luanne Triolo if you have any further questions on this matter (630) 665-3325.

Mayor Saverino Plans May “State of the Village”

Volume 14, Issue 1

Each year, the Carol Stream Chamber invites the Mayor to address the members at a monthly luncheon and inform all of the latest growth in the Village. This luncheon is the most popular of the year, drawing over 120 attendees.

At the May 14th luncheon, Mayor Frank Saverino will give his first “State of the Village” address to local businessmen and women as they gather at the Holiday Inn/Carol Stream.

Founder and owner of Saverino and Associates, a food vending services company in Carol Stream, Frank Saverino has been a member and strong supporter of the Carol Stream Chamber for years. Newly elected to the office of Mayor in May 2007, Saverino’s term follows Mayor Ferraro’s 20 year term in office.

The Chamber typically holds the Village address at the April annual meeting, but due to a conflict with the Mayor’s schedule it was moved to May 14th.

This luncheon is the perfect opportunity for Carol Stream businesses who are non-members to visit. If you have a business neighbor who would benefit from networking and hearing the local update, encourage them to attend with you. RSVP for this luncheon on or before May 9th.

Scholarships Offered by the Chamber

Each year the chamber puts aside money to help local students with money for college. The Carol Stream Chamber of Commerce in conjunction with Dollars For Scholars™ is accepting applications from Carol Stream students for college scholarships. Last year, the chamber awarded $2,500 in scholarships to local teens.

Dollars For Scholars™, a program of Scholarship America™ is a nonprofit volunteer organization that provides local graduating seniors with financial assistance to help them pursue higher education. It is a national network of nearly 1,200 grassroots community-based, volunteer-driven scholarship foundations in cities, towns and neighborhoods in 40 states and the District of Columbia. The common element in Dollars for Scholars™ chapters is community-based fundraising for scholarships awarded to local students.

Applications can be found on the website: carolstreamchamber.com or obtained from the chamber office or the school’s guidance department.

By Michael Angelo Caruso

Experts have never identified stress as a direct cause of death, but the medical community almost unanimously agrees that stress can be deadly when combined with obesity, heart disease, smoking, depression and other serious health issues. In a long-term study of University of North Carolina alumni, people with high stress scores were more likely to die of heart attacks. Nearly 14 percent of those with high stress died in the 25 years following the test. Only 2 percent of people with low stress scores suffered heart attacks. Here are 5 Cool Ideas for reducing stress and possibly avoiding a heart attack.

1) You can refuse delivery on stress. Since much stress is based in fear, you can give yourself a boost anytime, anywhere, by dealing with your fear. Metaphorically, spread your arms parallel to the ground and repeat the mantra, "You can't hurt me." The advanced version is "You won't hurt me. I trust you not to hurt me." Consult my booklet, "Hmmm...Little Ideas With BIG Results." Order single copies or bulk shipments of the "Hmmm . . ." booklet so all of your team members will be on the same page.

2) Learn how others deal with stress. Pay attention to how people deal with bad news, long lines and disappointing service. Observe how some people respond to stress with aggression, anger and physical manifestation of their discomfort. Observe how other people respond to stress by smiling and asserting themselves without raising their voices. The second group of people has learned how to resist daily wear and tear on their emotions. Model this behavior and you will have less stress.

3) Say "so long" to negative people. You have a limited amount of time to spend with others. Each hour you spend with negative people is an hour you can't spend with positive people. If you can't say "so long" to negative friends and associates, at least don't say "hello" as often.

4) Impose deadlines on stress. Be proactive about stress by refusing to let it linger. If you're uptight about missing work after your surgery next month, promise yourself to start feeling better within a certain number of days after the operation. Here's another way to impose a deadline on stress. When someone yells at you, convince yourself that your anger need only be present until the person's words dissipate.

5) Repeat after me, "Mondays are fun." Many people don't like Mondays. They subscribe to the pervasive theory that the first business day of the week is going to be bad news. This is a depressing way to approach one-seventh of your life! Try thinking of Mondays as a fresh start to the week or the first day of the week that generates income. Over time, I've been able to convince myself that Monday is the best day of the week.

Michael Angelo Caruso is founder and President of The Edison House LLC, an international consulting firm specializing in corporate and personal improvement. www.edisonhouse.com Reprinted with permission.

Women In Business Plan Progressives

What makes a luncheon a valuable networking event? Business professionals will agree that meeting new people and sharing their company information with them can result in building their business.

The Carol Stream Chamber Women In Business are planning two events that will help attendees 'get the word out' about their business and make it fun at the same time.

March 31st is the "Tables of Interest" event at Glendale Lakes Golf Club. As members arrive at the registration table, they choose three tables by interests. Immediately, they have something in common with the other nine at their table. As a bonus, table 'sponsors' complete the interest 'theme' by distributing giveaways that pertain to their business. Held several years ago, this luncheon was extremely popular and successful. At each WIB luncheon, a philanthropy is chosen and attendees to the March luncheon can bring a non-perishable food item to be donated to the Interfaith Food Pantry in Carol Stream. Suggestions/Most-needed items: Coffee, Tea, Macaroni & Cheese, Tuna, Cereal.

On May 30th, the WIB group will hold a luncheon at the Holiday Inn/Carol Stream. Joining us will be Bloomingdale, Winfield, & Warrenville, Wheaton, Bartlett, Addison Chambers. This progressive lunch will have a polka dot theme as dice are thrown to determine the table at which to sit. The progressive nature of these events makes it even more interesting to network with other women. Of course, men are always welcome.

Always planning, the WIB committee has a full year schedule for you. In July, families are invited and encouraged to gather as we attend a Kane County Cougars game on July 16th. September 25th will be the 2nd Annual "What Women Want" Expo. We can't wait!

We hope you will take a look at your planner and mark down these dates. Contact Chair Christie Ruffino or the chamber office for more information @ (630) 665-3325.

Chamber Member Joe Cotton Ford Honored

Joe and Paul Cotton of Joe Cotton Ford have been honored by Ford Motor Company in its "Salute to Dealers" recognition program, one of only 9 dealers selected, out of 6,000 in North America, for their philanthropic and community efforts.

Each year, they partner with the Village of Carol Stream for the annual "Christmas Sharing." This program assists hundreds of community residents and children in need during the holidays. In addition to hosting the new toy distribution, they also donate items, like stuffed animals this year. Trucks and personnel are also provided to make it all happen.

The caring and compassionate philosophy has gained them national recognition. They were recipients of the award at a ceremony which took place February 8, 2008 in San Francisco, California.

Thank you, Joe Cotton Ford, for going 'above and beyond' and making us all proud. Congratulations!

"Salute to Dealers" recipients, Joe Cotton (above) and Paul Cotton (below) - one of nine dealers in North America to receive the award.

State Senator Pankau Offers Scholarships

Students who will be attending state universities in Illinois may submit applications for the General Assembly Scholarship program to the office of State Sen. Carole Pankau (R-Itasca) through April 15.

Students whose permanent addresses lie within the 23rd District are eligible. Eight one-year tuition waivers – for fall 2008, spring 2009, and summer 2009 – are available to students who will be attending state universities. Senator Pankau appoints a screening committee of community leaders to review all applications and make recommendations to her.

Names of those selected will be announced after June. Applications are available at Senator Pankau's office at One Tiffany Pointe, Suite G, Bloomingdale, IL 60172, ph: (630) 582-0390, or by going to www.pankau.senategop.org.

Deadline for all completed applications is April 15.
